

I have been using the CapTel phone for the past several months and find it extremeley helpful with my many phone calls I have to make. Although I have a cochlear implant, I need the CapTel phone to tell me what I'm missing. Please include it in the FTRI distibution program for the millions of hard of hearing people who can speak for ourselves over the phone but cannot understand everything that's being said to them. Than